

Decimosexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

19 de julio de 2026

Que el justo sea humano.

— Sabiduría 12:19

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Bartolomé de las Casas, el gran defensor de los indígenas, nació en Sevilla, España en 1474 y falleció en Madrid en el año 1566. Su larga vida fue dedicada a la presencia española en América.

Bartolomé llegó a la Nueva España para encargarse de una Encomienda. Después fue ordenado sacerdote y recibió a cargo una encomienda de mineros amerindios. Poco a poco su corazón cristiano le abrió los ojos a las injusticias españolas en América.

Por eso se hizo fraile dominico e hizo varios viajes a España en defensa de los derechos humanos de los amerindios ante los reyes de España, los cuales le dieron tierras en Venezuela y Chiapas para poner en práctica su teoría humanista acerca de los indígenas.

Hasta el fin de su vida este fraile y teólogo dominico luchó por los derechos de los nativos americanos, buscando convencer a los reyes españoles y a los Papas que la conquista no favorecía la evangelización de los pueblos. Gracias a sus esfuerzos se abolió la esclavitud indígena y se instituyó el diálogo, en lugar de la espada, como instrumento de conversión.

Those who are just must be kind.

— Wisdom 12:19

© J.S. Paluch Co., Inc.

THE MERCY, POWER, AND LOVE OF GOD

The first reading today, from the book of Wisdom, makes its point over and over, at least five times in five verses! God is mighty, but lenient to all. God's power is shown in kindness and clemency, not in harshness and condemnation, and those who govern God's people must govern in the same way, with kindness. This loving kindness and gentleness is not contrary to God's might, but is a direct result of God's primacy over all. Who are we, then, to judge what is in the hearts of our fellow Christians and all people, when God commands justice with love and clemency?

Likewise, the Holy Spirit makes up for our ignorance of what we need, speaking in a language we do not yet understand. But God knows our needs before we do, understands the intercessions of the Spirit, and helps us in our weakness. This is our hope: God's mercy, power, and love.

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the members of Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church, recognize and respect our diverse and multicultural character. By the grace of God, we will nurture our spiritual community through prayer, service, and example to become one family in Christ.

God has called Raymond Pawloski, father of Allsion Revetta, to himself. Let us pray that he may experience the joy and peace of eternal life. We offer our deepest sympathy and assurance of prayer for his family and friends.

Kroger Community Rewards Program
The Kroger Community Rewards Program is an opportunity to raise funds for St. John by shopping at Kroger and swiping your Shopper’s card or entering your phone number. To begin this process go to <https://www.Kroger.com/> and sign in or create a digital account. If you already have a digital account or Shopper’s card, simply link your shopper’s card to your account. If you have any questions call 1-800-576-4377.

We have a new water cooler in the hall that dispenses cold and hot water. Cups are on the top of the cooler. Please throw your cups in the trashcan.

School Supplies
The Women's Group is helping families in the community who can't afford to buy school supplies. Please check the bulletin next week for items that are needed if you can help. School begins the first week of August.

Here is the established QR code for the parish if you would like to make your donation on line.

REFLECTING ON THE WORD
Parables have layers of meaning that can give us insight into the action that the parable demands of us. The gospel today has several parables about the Kin-dom of God, that place where God's people are gathered as family. Parables give us images to allow us to glimpse something as mysterious as the Kin-dom of God. The four-year-old children are fascinated by the image of the yeast. In the atrium where I gather with children, we teach the children to make dough with and without yeast. Once everything is mixed, the yeast cannot be taken out, it becomes a part of the dough. After an hour of waiting, we look at the two bowls of dough to see if we have an insight into this Kin-dom that Jesus is always talking about. The bowl with the yeasty dough looks, smells, and feels different. The children see the bubbles in the yeasty dough and say that the Kin-dom is: God’s love bubbling up...all of us people who grow and grow in heaven...oh! This is like the water and the wine at the altar (the water and wine cannot be separated, as the yeast and the flour cannot be separated)...

It is an exciting and fruitful conversation each week as a different child does the yeast work. They certainly hear the whisper of the Holy Spirit as they work with their hands to peel off layer by layer or meaning and action.
